Press Release

Longueuil, Quebec – On behalf of the Board of Directors of Azimut Exploration Inc. (“Azimut” or the “Company”), Dennis Wood, Chairman of the Board, announces with great sadness the sudden passing of Pierre Toth, one of the Company’s directors.

Since 2007, Mr. Toth shared his experience and exceptional business vision with the Company, and his contribution was greatly appreciated. All of Azimut’s employees and associates extend their sincere sympathies to his family and friends.

The board of directors has appointed Jean-Charles Potvin, B.Sc., MBA and an independent director of Azimut since 2003, to replace Mr. Toth as president of the Audit Committee.

Azimut is a mineral exploration company using cutting-edge targeting methodologies to discover major ore deposits. Azimut holds the largest mineral exploration portfolio in Quebec.
